

NOTICE:

We would first like to make sure you and your family are well, within these times. Also, to remind you we may have worked together in the past or with one of our many networking groups.

We wanted to Share some great news.

Did you know that your home could generate a lot of income for you every year as a vacation rental? Or if you are currently renting your home out. We can help save you time and money too.

So, managing everything on your own is a huge hassle and traditional property managers charge ridiculous fees, I am sure you know that or have researched it.

We can make it easy with our basic plan to launch your rental business with little or no costs. At Short Term Home Rentals, we believe that you as the homeowner should be the one getting the rental income. Right?

We focus on providing the services that put real revenue in your bank account superior marketing and booking. If guests aren't booking your property, you don't have an income.

With our service, added to your current system or if you're just a newbie we can help get your calendar booked. We can often increase your current rentals income or add to it.

So, let us at Short Term Home Rentals Help:

- Maximize your revenue
- Minimize your work.
- Enjoy support from Professionals, we can be like you're Director of First Impressions.
- Gain peace of mind we are here to help.
- Save on getting direct rentals and not the big addon's so many others do.
- And much more.

If you're ready to launch your vacations rental business to the next level. We would like to offer you a Free landing page. shorttermhomerentals.net/list-with-us If you're already doing this, lets us help find a way to save even more.
